

P.O. Box 1053
Rome, GA 30162-1053
706-234-2845

Volunteer Information

Name _____ t-shirt size _____
 Address _____ city _____ state _____ zip _____
 home phone _____ cell phone _____
 Email _____
 What kind of work do you do? _____
 What hobbies or interests do you have? _____
 Other skills or talents? _____

General Job Description: To be a partner with an adult with developmental disabilities, to help maintain attention to task, to see opportunities to expand his/her world, to model or give choices; engage in conversation; to stay with or meet back with the group; to help but not do for, may work side by side completing the same or different task, most importantly-have FUN!

DIGS volunteer opportunities: No experience necessary! Check all that apply.

- Camera Club mentor: Third Friday of each month, 7:00-8:00 p.m.
- Art Club mentor or instructor: First Monday of each month, 6:30-8:00 p.m.
All supplies needed will be supplied by DIGS.
- Garden Art Worker: Usually Saturdays morning or afternoon.
Come when you can.
- Dance Club dance instructor: Second Thursday of each month, 6:30-8:00 p.m.
- Chair or co-chair a fundraiser: as scheduled.
- Wood working: on your free time-to cut wood cutouts for projects.
- Other _____

If requested, I agree to a background check to ensure the safety of our members. Any cost incurred would be paid by DIGS.

I give my permission to be photographed and videoed and allow photos/videos to be used for the enjoyment of other members and families, with the sponsors of DIGS, Inc. and Rome-Floyd Parks & Recreation Authority, in material representing DIGS, Inc., such as but not limited to programs, performances, exhibits, website and/or Facebook, with the community to promote awareness of the positive aspects of people with disabilities, in material to promote the mission of DIGS, Inc., such as but not limited to informational brochures and fundraising efforts.

Signature _____ date _____